AEA Opposes Faubus' Big Bond Program

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus indicated again today that he doesn't expect easy sailing for his $60 million construction bond issue proposal, which the powerful Arkansas Education Association has come out against.

Faubus didn't say directly the program might be in trouble, but he didn't dispute reporters who said they had found some of the governor's customary strong supporters against it.

And he indicated—again without saying so directly—that he thought maybe some of the people who would benefit by the program should step up their efforts in its behalf.

Faubus declared also that "these bonds are no pet idea of mine. You know I've been more inclined to pay as we go."

But he said that under the circumstances the bond proposal was a wise one because it would free more money for operating expenses.

He commented that despite the AEA's opposition, he thought the bond proposal was to that organization's advantage.

The AEA Saturday announced its opposition to the bond issue proposal, which will be voted on at a special statewide election, and to a companion $17 million omnibus law, dealing mainly with construction but also covering a variety of other items.

The organization said it would challenge constitutionality of the omnibus law in court.

Commenting on the bond proposal, Faubus said, "I believe both individuals and governments should live within their means, but there comes a time when we can use credit wisely and prudently."

"If we have a bond issue, then more money in the future will be available for operating expenses of public schools and other institutions because debt service on the bonds will be only about $4.1 million a year and we would have to take out considerably more than that each year if we were trying to carry out this construction program with current revenues."

Faubus said the construction program probably could have been handled with current money if the Legislature had not allocated nearly $18 million in anticipated surpluses to operating expenses of various agencies, including an additional $10 a year to the Public School Fund.

Faubus still has to set a date for the special bond election.

The building program would provide for construction at state colleges and the University of Arkansas and many state institutions, including the State Hospital and the Children's Colony.

The AEA said it would support a smaller bond program—say $20 million—but that it was afraid that public school money would ultimately be diverted to pay off the bonds on the more ambitious program.

Drug Makers Accused by the FTC

WASHINGTON (AP)—Four drugs manufacturers have been accused by the Federal Trade Commission of making false advertising claims about the speed with which their pain-relief preparations work.

"The truth is," the federal agency said Sunday, "there is no significant difference in the rate of speed with which these or any other analgesics relieve pain."

The companies and the products named by the FTC were: American Home Products Corp., New York—Anacin.

Bristol-Myers Co., New York—Bufferin.

Plough, Inc., Memphis, Tenn.—St. Joseph's aspirin.

Sterling Drug Co., New York—Bayer aspirin and Bayer aspirin for children.

Ernie Kimpel, an attorney for Plough, Inc., said the FTC action "comes as no surprise, and we do not consider it serious."

He said every claim made in behalf of St. Joseph's aspirin "can be backed up clinically."

The accused companies were given 30 days to answer the complaints.

Preview of Kiwaniis Show at Blevins

Blevins will get the first glimpse of the 1961 Hope Kiwanis Minsirel Show Tuesday night, March 21, at 8 o'clock in the Blevins High School auditorium.

After the Blevins performance the show will move into Hope High School auditorium for two performances, Thursday and Friday night, March 23-24.

The Blevins show Tuesday night, which will be photographed by The Star, is for the benefit of the Blevins Senior Class, Mrs. Jess Tinsley sponsor. The all-girl chorus of the Blevins School will appear in the minsirel cast, as well as several Blevins specialty numbers.

The annual Kiwanis Club Minsirel has become a southwest Arkansas classic, now in its 18th year—and always a good and amusing show.

M. V. Coile, 76, Dies at His Home Near Hope Today

Martin V. Coile, aged 76, a resident of this area for the past eight years, died unexpectedly at his home on Hope Rt. 4 today. He was a retired farmer and a member of the Methodist Church.

Survivors include a son, Marvis Coile of Ft. Worth, a daughter, Doris Coile of Hope; three step-children, Mrs. Bobbie Hutchins of Hefflin, La., Mrs. Nancy Lee Mallock of Plain Dealing, La., Mrs. Oleta Hodges of Monroe, a brother, Ernest Coile of Plain Dealing, two sisters, Mrs. Gus Morris of Palestine, Texas and Mrs. Delia Giles of Shreveport.

Arrangements are incomplete and will be announced by Oakcrest Funeral Service.

Abandoned Right-Way Land Reverts

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Supreme Court today affirmed Union Chancery Court giving Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Smith title to abandoned right of way of the El Dorado and Weeson Railroad which crossed their land.

The railroad gave title to the right of way property to Natural Resources Inc., after the line was abandoned in 1959.

The Smiths contended that when the railroad acquired the property in 1906 it obtained only an easement which was valid only as long as the land was used for a railroad.

The Supreme Court upheld this view.

In a Boone County case, the Supreme Court reversed a lower court action dismissing Equitable Discounts Corp.'s suit against Dennis Trotter, a grocer, for alleged nonpayment of a $1,000 debt.

The court said Trotter had bought paint from the Ohmclac Paint and Refining Co. worth $1,096 and that Ohmclac had sold the notes to Equitable. The court said this may not have been a just debt to Ohmclac, but that Equitable apparently did not know this and bought the notes in good faith.

The Supreme Court reversed Phillips Chancery Court's finding that Chicago Mill and Lumber Co. owns 333.7 acre tract occupied by Mrs. Beulah Sherman.

The Supreme Court said Mrs. Sherman and her family had lived on the land since 1900 and had acquired title through adverse possession.

It directed the lower court to give Mrs. Sherman title to the land.

After the Blevins performance the show will move into Hope High School auditorium for two performances, Thursday and Friday night, March 23-24.

'Witchcraft' Gangs Roam Congo Areas

By DENNIS NEED

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—A joint force of U. N. and Congolese soldiers got through to Kasongo today in their drive against witchcraft gangs terrorizing Kivu Province.

The column, made up of 150 U. N. Malay soldiers and 50 Congolese, flashed a terse message to U. N. headquarters here saying: "All is well."

The 200-mile drive to Kasongo from the U. N. base at Kindu apparently met no resistance from the bow-and-arrow gangs who profess intention to "kill all whites." The men traveled in heavy trucks over roads that were little more than ribbons of mud. The trip took 24 hours.

An estimated 30 whites thought to be mainly missionaries and plantation owners, are believed still in the Kasongo area—center of the witchcraft cult.

This is the first time that U. N. soldiers and soldiers nominally loyal to the leftist Stanleyville regime of Antoine Gizenga have co-operated on this scale. Gizenga's supporters claim control of Kivu, which has degenerated into a state of anarchy because of roving gangs of soldiers, cultists and bandits.

The United Nations has put the strength of the witchcraft fanatics at several hundred. They are armed with bows and arrows, lances and homemade guns. Around their heads they wear strips of leopard skin.

Their slogan is "kill all whites," but so far U. N. headquarters here has received no information that any whites have been killed by the cultists in the Kasongo area.

Congo experts believe the group belongs to a seceras Kikuyu, which is known to have indulged in human sacrifice but was suppressed under the old Belgian colonial rule.

The United Nations also reported that 13 refugees from Kivu Province—including at least six Americans—were expected in Leopoldville later. Since leaving their mission stations in Kivu the refugees have been under U. N. protection at the Kindu base.

Police Probe Wrecks and a Break-in

Two weekend accidents were investigated by City Police along with a house prowling incident and a warehouse break-in.

City Officers were called to the home of Mrs. S. L. Bracy at 302 West Division shortly before midnight Friday. Investigating a noise at her back door, Mrs. Bracy was grabbed by an unidentified assailant who fled. Mrs. Bracy suffered arm bruises and a small scratch on her hand.

The J. C. Atchley Co. warehouse on Candy Street was entered through a side door and so far as could be determined immediately, only a platform rocker is missing.

An auto driven by Cecil Dempsey skidded into a light pole on East Third Street, about midnight Friday, resulting in considerable damage. Officers Martin, Shirley and Hollis investigated.

On the Patmos Road George Harris lost control of his auto which hit a bridge and overturned in a ditch. Harris suffered a head injury. The car was badly damaged. Officers Martin, Shirley and Hollis charged Harris with reckless driving.

Ruling Delays Other Cases

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A state court judge today postponed indefinitely jury trials of Negro defendants because of a federal court's action in the case of a condemned Negro rapist.

Circuit Judge William J. Kirby said he wanted a chance to study the ruling handed down by the 8th U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals at St. Louis last Friday, when it ordered a new trial for Luther Bailey, under death sentence for rape.

There were no Negroes on the jury which convicted Bailey of raping a middle-aged white widow here in 1956 and fixed his punishment at death.

Negroes have served frequently on criminal court juries here, however, and there were some on the panel from which the Bailey jury was selected.

Legislature Merely Okays Faubus' Plan

(This is the sixth in a series of articles interpreting actions of the 1961 Legislature.)

By JOHN R. STARR
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—If the 63rd General Assembly had not left the decision on teacher retirement to Gov. Orval E. Faubus, teachers probably would speak on the 1961 session in glowing tones.

Legislators dropped an additional $10 million a year into the public school fund and about $7.5 million of this will be translated into pay raises for teachers—an average salary increase of $495 a teacher.

But, like the retirement problem, Faubus deserves more credit than the Legislature. It was he who suggested that $10 million of a projected $17 million revenue surplus be channeled to schools. The Legislature merely put its stamp of approval on the governor's bill.

The extra $10 million was forgotten, however, in the retirement squabble. Another $2 million for teachers, written into the so-called omnibus bill failed to reconcile differences between Faubus and the Arkansas Education Association after the governor ticked the AEA in the retirement controversy.

The retirement hassle was born last fall when the Legislative Council discovered the state was committed to put up to 15 percent of teachers salary into the retirement program. The AEA was asked to draw up a new plan and a joint committee was named early in the session to work one out.

The plan which called for the state to contribute a maximum of 9.72 percent of salary came out of this committee. Faubus, who had been hinting for several months that he felt a state continued on Page Two

Mrs. Collier, 84, Dies Today in Rest Home Here

Mrs. Minnie Collier, aged 84, a lifelong resident of this area, died early today in a local rest home.

She is survived by three sons, Edward Collier of Dallas; Tom of Ft. Worth and Aubrey Collier of Hope; four daughters, Mrs. Burnice Fuller of Hope; Mrs. Bessie Smith, Mrs. Mary Douthett and Mrs. J. H. Erwin of Little Rock.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Herndon-Cornelius Chapel by the Rev. Rufus Sorrells. Burial by Herndon-Cornelius Funeral Service will be in Shover Springs Cemetery.

Pallbearers will be nephews.

Broadcasters to Support CC Efforts

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Broadcasters Association, meeting here over the weekend, voted to lend its full support to the state Chamber of Commerce's Arkansas promotion efforts.

The broadcasters also announced their approval of legislation current before Congress concerning proposed overtime exemptions. A resolution pointed out that compliance in some situations with overtime provisions in the Federal Labor Standards Act, related to the broadcasting industry, were impractical.

"I" Mayor, manager of KBRI, Brinkley, was named chairman of the committee to assist the Chamber of Commerce's promotion work.

Others on the committee are Harris Owen of KARK, Little Rock, and Deloss Walker of KNEA, Jonesboro.

ABA President Julian F. Haas of KAGH, Crossett, reported that most of the state's television stations planned to join the association. The additions will place ABA membership at 54.

The Board of Directors will meet in May to map plans for the fall ABA meeting.

Judge Rueful Over Crack About Hope

The following letter was received over the week-end by B. N. Holt, manager of Hope Chamber of Commerce, from L. B. Tooley, former general manager of Radio Station KXAR, now an executive of Carter Communications Corporation in Dallas:

Dear Mr. Holt: I have just returned from a visit with my good friend and customer, Judge Bill Richburg of Dallas. Needless to say the subject of a recent statement of his concerning Hope as quoted in the Dallas Morning News was brought up.

Judge Bill asked me to apologize to the people of Hope for him. He said the remark was strictly facetious and was not aimed at Hope. He was kidding the man who was on trial for auto theft and would have made the same remark about any town or city the prisoner might have named.

Judge Richburg said he has been through Hope many times and that the Checkered Cafe used to make the best apple pies that he ever found. He also praised the Bruner-Ivory Handle Co. and their products. He is very fond of Arkansas and owns property in the state.

Judge Bill said he would be happy to come to Hope at any time in rectification for his statement and would be glad to be the speaker before any group—that is, if his life is not at stake!

For your information, his address is W. E. Richburg, 410 South Beckley, Dallas, Texas and his telephone number is WH-8-3388. Best personal regards.

L. B. Tooley.

Trip Cancelled

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rainy weather caused President Kennedy to cancel a Sunday trip to his country home near Middleburg, Va., where his wife spent the weekend.

Court Will Rule on Sit in Cases

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court today agreed to rule on appeals by 17 Negro students who were arrested in "sit-in" demonstrations at white lunch counters in Baton Rouge, La.

Their appeals are the first which will be heard by the Supreme Court as the result of prosecutions of sit-in demonstrators in the South.

The order said the date to hear arguments on the appeals will be set late.

The students contended in three separate appeals that a state has no power to compel segregation of races and, therefore, Louisiana could not impose criminal penalties for their expression of dissatisfaction at "being relegated to second-class status in public establishments."

The 17 Negroes, all of whom attended Southern University, were sentenced to four months' imprisonment each. Three months of the sentence could be suspended by payment of a $100 fine by each.

They were arrested while sitting at lunch counters in Sitman's drugstore, in the Kress store, and in the Greyhound bus station in Baton Rouge.

Their appeals asked a Supreme Court ruling that they were denied rights guaranteed by the equal protection and due process clauses of the U. S. Constitution.

A state, the appeals contended, may not use its power to compel racial segregation in private establishments which are open to the public, and has no power "to stifle protests against such segregation."

The arrests were made under a Louisiana law which prohibits the commission of "any act in such a manner as to unreasonably disturb or alarm the public." The students in the appeals denied they did anything that disturbed or alarmed the public.

Instead, the appeals said, the Negroes were arrested "merely because they were Negroes and sought food service at lunch counters maintained for white persons."

Jack P. F. Gremillion, attorney general of Louisiana, in a brief submitted to the Supreme Court opposed a hearing for the 17 students.

The brief said the students "deliberately, and as part of a well-organized nationwide plan, proceeded to intrude on the private property of other citizens to engage in unwanted demonstrations. To uphold their right to do so is to trample the rights of all other citizens."

Gremillion said in the brief that the law under which they were arrested "applies to everyone equally, regardless of race or color, and is not designed, nor applied, to enforce racial discrimination."

Final Rites for Elbert Jones

Services for Elbert Jones, 83, who died in a Shreveport hospital were held at 2:30 p.m. Sunday at Herndon-Cornelius Chapel by the Rev. W. C. Land. Burial was in Rose Hill Cemetery. Survivors include his wife and a brother, L. B. Jones of Hope.

Court Voids La. Law Barring Integration

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court today unanimously affirmed lower federal court orders striking down Louisiana efforts to bar school integration.

The high tribunal also turned down a request by the New Orleans School Board that it be allowed to maintain segregated schools until litigation between the federal government and the state is finally settled.

Without comment the Supreme Court:

1. Affirmed a Nov. 30, 1960 decision by a special three-judge federal court in New Orleans which knocked out an assortment of anti-integration laws.

2. Also affirmed a decision of Aug. 27, 1960, by the same special court which ordered control of New Orleans schools taken out of the hands of Gov. Jimmie H. Davis of Louisiana and put back with the Orleans Parish School Board.

This August order by the special court directed the school board to comply with a May 10, 1960 order by U. S. Dist. Judge J. Skelly Wright to integrate the first grade last fall.

It also knocked out the Louisiana state laws designed to block integration.

Today's Supreme Court action was foreshadowed by an action the high tribunal took Dec. 12, 1960.

At that time the high court unanimously denied a New Orleans School Board request that it stay the Nov. 30, 1960 decision by the special three-judge court.

Sleet, Snow Mark Arrival of Spring

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Snow, sleet and icy rains marked the arrival of spring in the nation's midsection today.

With calendar spring to begin at 2:32 p.m. (CST) a wintry storm plastered the Texas and Oklahoma panhandles with snow and spread sleet and rain eastward through Missouri and Oklahoma.

Amarillo, Tex., reported 2 inches of new snow atop a 5-inch cover. Dodge City, Kan. reported a like fall.

The Weather Bureau advised that up to 4 inches of snow could be expected throughout the area before the storm slackened.

The Southwest measured snows up to a foot deep from a weekend storm that closed several major roads, stranded motorists and disrupted power and communications in a number of communities.

A foot of snow cut off power in Tulsa, Tex. Silvertown, Tex., was hit with 8 1/2 inches of snow. Clovis, N.M., with 4 1/2 inches. Up to 5 inches of new snow fell in the Oklahoma Panhandle.

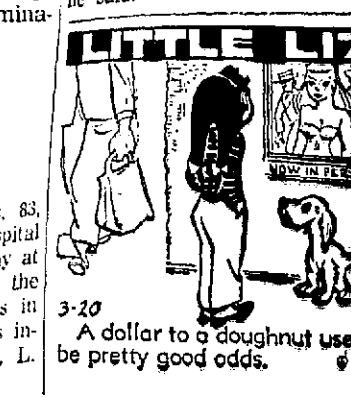

The new cover quickly began to melt under warming temperatures and farmers welcomed the snows as a break in a winter drought.

Sub-freezing weather gripped a broad area of the Northeast during the early morning, from New England through most of the Great Lakes and upper Mississippi Valley into the central Rockies and parts of the southern Plains.

Wanted Away From Nagging Wife

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—When police arrested Albert Torres, 20, Sunday on charges of possessing burglary tools, he said he tipped officers off on himself because he wanted to spend the night in jail to escape what he called a "nagging wife."

Torres got his wish. Police quoted him as saying he told his wife that if she didn't cut out the nagging he'd get himself arrested. She didn't believe him, he said.

Legislature

tribution of 5 per cent was enough, finally advanced a 5 per cent plan after it appeared the problem was ironed out.

The Legislature, caught in a squeeze between Faubus and the AEA, dropped the hot potato by passing both bills. Faubus, of course, vetoed the AEA bill and signed his own, which eventually was amended to peg retirement contributions at $3.7 million for fiscal 1961-62 and $3.9 million for fiscal 1962-63.

The 97.2 plan represented a cash contribution of about $6 million, the 5 per cent plan about $3 million. So the final Faubus plan was a compromise, although the AEA didn't accept it as such.

Faubus finally confessed that his plan was a temporary one and set up machinery for a two-year study of all major state retirement systems. But there was no mention of a study until it began to appear as if Faubus would have trouble passing his bill.

As it was, it took two votes in each house to get the Faubus bill through. On the first ballot, the Faubus bill was six votes short of passage in the House and three short in the Senate. The governor's floor leaders found the additional votes and got the bill passed on reconsideration.

The 1963 Legislature, working with findings of the study group, will be charged with setting up a permanent retirement program.
Faubus' head-on tangle with the AEA over retirement probably influenced that group's decision to oppose the governor's $60 million bond issue proposal. If the AEA succeeds in marshaling 15,000 teachers against the proposal, it will have difficult going.

Actually, teachers won't know for some time exactly how actions of the 1961 Legislature will affect them. The Education Department will announce early next week just how much of a pay increase teachers can expect, but the final figure will be determined by revenue collections. As for retirement, what the 1963 Legislature does will have considerably more effect than the stop-gap actions of 1961.

The only ill effect that passage of the Faubus plan can have is that the retirement reserve fund will fall further below the amount needed to guarantee retirement benefits. However, the 41 million fund already was far less than adequate and a further fallback of about $4 million won't have permanently damaging effect.

The 1961 session did pass a bill to permit investment of retirement reserve funds in government bonds and utility stocks to permit a higher interest return. This bill will help build up the fund through the years.

The AEA said in a statement Saturday that it would oppose both the bond bill and the companion omnibus measure. It said the omnibus bill will be attacked in court as unconstitutional. Apparently the AEA will work for an unfavorable vote on the bond proposal.

Faubus already has said that if the bond proposal is beaten at the polls, he will call the Legislature into special session to repeal the $17 million omnibus bill and reallocate its money for construction at the State Hospital and the Children's Colony.

The AEA fears the bond issue because it is to be retired from current revenue and the AEA feels that this might someday result in a reduction of funds for public schools. At best, the AEA feels, schools might fail to get some additional money they otherwise would have obtained.

The AEA said it had no dispute with the purpose of the bond issue — construction at the State Hospital, University of Arkansas, the Children's Colony and seven state colleges. It did disagree, however, with all provisions of the omnibus bill, even the $1 million for teachers. The omnibus bill, among other things, allocates about $11 million for construction at state institutions not covered by the bond bill. These projects are regarded as less pressing.

Spa Judge to Run for Congress

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Hot Springs Municipal Judge M. C.
Lewis Jr. says he will enter the race for the House seat left vacant by the death of Arkansas Rep.
W. F. Norrell of Monticello.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus is expected to file papers with the secretary of state today setting a special election for April 18 to fill Norrell's unexpired term.

Norrell's widow and John H.
Jones, a Pine Bluff attorney, also have said they will run for the post. There may be other entries.

Norrell's successor will serve through 1962. Then the 6th District is expected to be split up among three of four new districts created by the 1961 Arkansas Legislature because of the state's loss of two House seats.

Lewis said he probably will take a leave of absence as municipal judge and begin his campaign next week. He said the law does not require that he resign to run in a special election.

He became municipal judge in 1954.

If Faubus files the election call today, as he said he would do, officials of the 13 counties in Norrell's 6th District would be notified immediately to begin preparing for the election.

The 13 are Garland, Saline,

Price Fixing Probe Pushed
by U. S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Justice Department is pushing investigations of alleged price fixing in meat, milk, drugs and other products "almost all across the board in certain sections of the United States."

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy said "we're going to be able to lower prices in some of these important fields," and cited the successful prosecution under the Eisenhower administration of 29 big electrical equipment manufacturers.

"When the (electrical) conspiracy broke down," he said, "the price to the consumer and to the government fell about 30 to 40 per cent."

He said price fixing is widespread and the department has started investigations in almost every major city. "Rather important cases appear to be developing," he added, in New York City and New York State.

Kennedy was interviewed by Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., in a program recorded for use Sunday by New York radio and television stations.

Keating asked about rumors
"that there's been some rift or

Baseball Player
Fined in Court

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) —
Frank Robinson, slugging Cincinnati Reds baseball team outfielder, pleaded guilty in Common Pleas Court today to a charge of carrying concealed weapons and was fined $250 and costs.

Under the law the Negro ball player could have been sentenced from one to three years in prison.
The charge against Robinson grew out of an argument in a restaurant here on Feb. 9. Robinson was accused of having drawn pistol during the dispute.

He said at that time he was in the restaurant make a threeening motion with a knife. The cook claimed he did not get the knife until after Robinson drew the pistol.

Robinson claimed he carried the pistol for protection because of the darkness at the parking of his apartment.

Robinson, the 1960 Negro League slugging champion, pleaded guilty to the charge of carrying a pistol at Tampa, Fla., where the Reds are in spring training.

In pronouncing sentence, Judge Frank M. Gusweiler lectured Robinson and declared that since a ball player is in the public eye, owed it to the people to set a good example.

Robinson, 25, had little to say other than that he was not happy over the outcome of the case.

difficulty between you and J. Edgar Hoover."

"There's certainly nothing to it," Kennedy said.

He urged more legislation to combat organized crime, mentioning transmission of gambling information across state lines and broadening the fields into which the FBI can move.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers had astonishing statements like "Pile have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute.

This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H.

Clark Gable's Wife Gives Birth to Boy

By JAMES BACON
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Clark Gable's widow gave birth today to an 8-pound boy.

Both Mrs. Kay Gable and the baby, delivered by Caesarean section, were reported in good condition at Hollywood Presbyterian Hospital.

The time of birth was 7:48 a.m. Gable, long-time movie hero, died in the same hospital last Nov. 16 of a heart attack. This was his first child and he had looked forward eagerly to its birth.

In a second-floor waiting room, nervously pacing during the surgery, was Mrs. Gable's 11-year-old son by a previous marriage, Bunker.

"I want a brother," he told newsmen.

Mrs. Gable's daughter, Joan, 9, attended Communion at St. Cyril's Roman Catholic church near the Gable ranch in suburban Encino and was not at the hospital.

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The late Clark Gable's first baby is scheduled to come into the world today by caesarean section.

The baby almost came Saturday night when Kay Gable, beautiful, blonde widow of the movies' all-time king, collapsed when she entered Hollywood Presbyterian Hospital.

Gable died in the same hospital last Nov. 16 from a heart attack. It was Mrs. Gable's first visit since that tragic night.

"When I got into my room—just two floors above Clark's—I fell apart," she said Sunday night. "It looked like the baby would come anytime, so they prepared me for surgery."

"Fortunately, pills slowed me down. I soon felt fine again."

"I guess the shock of coming back here for the first time since he died was just a little too much for me. I almost upset the whole schedule."

Mrs. Gable, 41, lost a baby she and Gable expected in 1955. She suffered then from a heart condition. Doctors said they anticipated no such complication this birth.

Her doctor even bypassed a scheduled series of blood transfusions to build up her hemoglobin.

She still lives in the sprawling 20-acre Encino ranch that had been Gable's home for years.

"Clark and I had so much happiness there together," she said. "Every room in the house is filled with love. There are so many wonderful memories."

"We planned most of the nursery together. Thank goodness for that."

The nursery is mostly pale yellow and white. The crib is a little four-poster affair with a yellow and white canopy.

"Only the thought of having Clark's baby has kept me from having a nervous breakdown," she told a reporter. "He wanted this baby so much that I knew I must keep strong for that reason alone."

Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Burke

The Emmet Methodist Church was the scene Friday, February 24 of the wedding of Miss Martha Ann Grimes of Prescott and Ronnie Burke of Hope. The double ring ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. D. L. McCauley. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Grimes of Prescott and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Burke of Hope.

The couple exchanged vows at 7:30 in the evening before an altar of southern smilax with white ribbons intermingled with greenery and white satin bows. High in the chancel was an arc formed with two tall 7 branched candelabra and burning candles with smilax and greenery entwining them.

Mrs. Kenneth Ledbetter of Prescott, cousin of the bride, was organist, and accompanied Miss Ellen Kennedy of Rossion, as she sang "I Love You Truly" and later in the ceremony "The Lord's Prayer" as the couple knelt on the prie dieu.

Michael Samuel and Billy Faulkner of Hope, cousins of the groom, lighted the candles.

Miss Mary Frances Harrison of Prescott, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and Mrs. Steve Holloway of Little Rock, sister of the groom, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Sheila Mann of Arkadelphia, cousins of the groom. Junior bridesmaids were Miss Penny Burke of Hope, sister of the groom, and Miss Donna Grimes of Prescott, sister of the bride.

Irvin Burke of Hope served his son as best man. Ushers were Buddy Formby and Max Formby of Prescott, cousins of the bride, and Dick Arnold of Hope.

The brides attendants were beautiful in identical dresses of beaded tulle fashioned with elbow length sleeves and scooped necklines. They wore net hats trimmed with sprays of roses and shoes that matched their dresses and hats. They all carried colonial bouquets of feathered dyed to match carnations.

Cosette Burke, sister of the groom, was the flower girl. She carried a white basket trimmed with net and pink bows of ribbon and filled with pink rose petals.

Timmy Dean Grimes of Prescott, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a flowing princess dress of white tulle with French lace with hand clipped elaborate scallops and a tulle train. The fashionable bodice with midriff finish came to a point in front with a satin fold and bow. The long tapering sleeves came to a point over the hand.

Her shoulder length tiered veil of imported silk illusion fell from a crown of tiny seed pearls and crystal. She carried a bouquet of fleur de moue centered with a large white orchid with satin streamers tied in love knots.

For the wedding Mrs. Grimes chose a blue lace dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Burke wore a moss green linen dress with lace trim and matching accessories. Their corsages were of pink carnations.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held in the educational room with the bride's parents as hosts. They, with Mr. and Mrs. Burke, and the attendants formed a receiving line and greeted the guests.

The serving table was covered with a white satin cloth. White gladioli and stock flanked by white tapers in silver candleholders formed the centerpiece. At one end of the table punch was served from a crystal punch bowl by Mrs. Delmar Tyree and Mrs. Tommy Cottingham, cousins of the bride, on the other end was a five-tiered wedding cake topped with a bride and groom which was served by Miss Lou Alice Tyree of Longview, Texas and Mrs. William Formby of Prescott, cousins of the bride. Miss Brenda Faulkner of Hope, cousin of the groom, assisted in dispensing hospitalities.

Mrs. Gene Riley of Little Rock, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the bride's book. Randy Grimes and Miss Janice Floyd of Prescott, cousins of the bride, distributed rice bags.

For the wedding trip, Mrs. Burke wore a light blue wool suit with home accessories and pinned a white orchid at her shoulder.

After a wedding trip in Texas, Oklahoma and Southern Arkansas the couple will be at home in Prescott.

Out of town guests included Mrs. George Taiton, Misses Susan, Sharon and Linda Taiton, Billy Legislature a companion measure which pledges that no public school funds shall be used to pay off the construction bonds.

The AEA dismissed that law as "a legal subterfuge."

"It is nothing more than a declaration of intent, no more legally binding than an oral promise."

Education Commissioner Arch Ford said Saturday he would support the bond issue. Faubus must set a date for a statewide election so voters can approve or reject the plan. If it is rejected, the governor has said he will call a special session of the legislature to revamp the omnibus bill to meet the most pressing construction needs, especially at the crumbling State Hospital.

The AEA said in a statement over the weekend that a meeting of its Council of Education would be called for Saturday to map active, aggressive opposition to the bond program in the election.

Faubus has called for a steering committee to plug for the plan and publicize it before the election.

The Faubus program calls for issuing $20 million in bonds in the next fiscal year, and paying for them through increased revenue, tighter use tax laws and revenue from a longer horse racing season at Hot Springs' Oaklawn Park.

The bond issue calls for issuance of $15 million in bonds in the following two fiscal years with another $10 million in a fourth fiscal year. Under the law, the bonds would be issued only if revenue increases enough to pay for them.

Money from the omnibus bill would come from current surplus revenue.

Suit to Evict Florida Co.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Mississippi County Bank of Osceola has filed suit in U.S. District here to evict the Florida Real Estate Loan Company from offices in the bank building.

The loan company is one of the properties of Andrew and George Florida, who are involved in complicated tax litigation and receivership.

The bank declared that both placing the company in the receivership and a decrease in rent payments since the action was taken were a violation of a 15-year lease agreement signed in 1957.

Hard-Hearted Mother Grieves Daughter

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen:

What can be done with an ungrateful parent? All my life I have tried to do what my mother wanted but seem to fall far short of her expectations. I don't smoke or drink, though many of my friends do, because I know she disapproves. I attend church faithfully, as do my husband and daughter. I'm a good housekeeper, although I work at an office five days a week. Our daughter is at college. My mother is critical of her and has no liking for my husband—but everybody else does.

I have given her a TV, a radio, an electric iron, toaster, roaster, waffle iron, electric blanket, jewelry and clothing but she is never satisfied. Not once since I was born, has she put her arms around me, or kissed me. Have you any suggestions? —Discouraged

Dear Discouraged: We might as well face it; not all mothers qualify for parenthood—sentimentalists to the contrary. Since yours doesn't, stop treating her like a mother. Be kind but impersonal. She may surprise you by doing a right-about-face. However, should she fail to accept the challenge, don't grieve. Accept the situation and give thanks for the two who do love you—your husband and daughter.

Dear Helen:

I am a tomboy. I would rather be with animals than other kids. When I try to act like other girls, my classmates poke fun at me. How can I be like other girls yet continue my love for animals? —Mixed-up

Dear Mixed-up: Stop trying to be like other girls. Be yourself and a very nice self it must be if you like animals. Kids are quick to detect insincerity. Your classmates laugh because phones are funny. And you're one when you're not being yourself. It would be a very dull world if we were all alike. Have the courage to be different.

Dear Helen:

I've been going steady for three years and became engaged last fall. My fiancé is 25 years older than I but tied to his mother's apron strings. She doesn't like me and wouldn't even look at my engagement ring. Every time her son gives me something she has to have something better. What can I do? —Confused

Dear Confused: You've got two problems here: Your fiancé's age and his mother's possessiveness. Marriage to a man a quarter of a century older than you is a big risk, especially if he is still Mama's boy. He won't change at his age. Better think it over.

Send your problems to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "Mother Complex."

Foreign Aid Message

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy will send Congress a special message on foreign aid Tuesday, hold a news conference Wednesday and may send Congress another message Thursday proposing budget revisions.

There will be no live television or radio coverage of Kennedy's 4 p.m. news conference.

War Group to Probe Race Charge

CLINTON, N.Y. (AP)—The National Civil War Centennial Commission, prodded by President Kennedy, will meet Tuesday in Washington to discuss an alleged case of racial discrimination at a forthcoming Civil War observance at Charleston, S.C.

Maj. Gen. U. S. Grant III (ret.), commission chairman, said at his home here Sunday night that he had called a meeting of the commission's executive committee in response to a letter from the President.

The White House said Kennedy had asked the commission to see to it that white and Negro delegates get equal treatment at the Charleston observance April 11-12.

Madeline A. Williams, a Negro member of the commission's New Jersey unit, had complained she was denied accommodations at the hotel that will serve as headquarters for the Charleston observance.

The national commission plans to hold its annual meeting in conjunction with the observance of the 100th anniversary of the firing on Ft. Sumter.

Grant, a grandson of Ulysses S. Grant, the Civil War Union general and 18th president, declined to say what action the commission would take, pending consultation with other commission members.

Earlier, Grant said, in reply to protests by New Jersey congressmen, that racial matters were out of the commission's jurisdiction. He said the commission had been invited to Charleston by the South Carolina branch.

No Progress in Ending Laos Crisis

WASHINGTON (AP)—No indications of progress toward ending the Laotian crisis have stemmed from a lengthy U.S.-Soviet conference on cold war issues that threaten to become hot.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko restated in detail the U.S. and Soviet positions during an extraordinary five-hour conference Saturday.

The two, accompanied by top advisers, began talking over lunch at the State Department at 1 p.m. and did not part until dusk.

A joint statement, couched in very general terms, said only that they hoped their "open and frank discussion will lead to a better mutual understanding of the positions and attitudes of both governments and may facilitate the consideration of outstanding problems."

Rusk is believed to have made it very clear to Gromyko, and thus to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, that the United States has no intention of allowing beleaguered Laos to be taken over by Communist rebels.

The United States has several times expressed deep concern over a Communist air lift of arms to pro-Communist Pathet Lao rebels, which threatens to lead to an arms race on both sides.

The U.S. position is that a truly neutral government should be established in Laos.

Fordyce Phone System Dedicated

FORDYCE, Ark. (AP) - Gov. Orval E. Faubus Saturday night initiated Fordyce's new telephone exchange which has the first person-to-person long-distance dialing system in the United States.

The system was changed a few hours before a California town initiated another person-to-person long-distance dialing system.

Faubus spoke to a dinner, attended by about 400 persons, then made the first call to John A. Baker, assistant secretary of agriculture. Baker is a native of Logan County.

HOW TO MAKE A BUNNY AT HOME

Terry toys have long been favorites with children but here is a toy that is fun for the entire family and can be made at home. It is a soft, white cuddly bunny made from terry towels that is a hit in any situation. Try making it for a table decoration, a show-off gift for the springtime crop of new arrivals or to amuse a child who must stay indoors.

The main "makings" of the bunny are soft, white towels. Although the towels should be white as new, it is not necessary to buy new ones. For grey, dingy, harsh towels can be transformed to new whiteness and softness in modern laundering. It is not unusual in many busy households, to find some towels grey with "left-in" soil. Unless towels are laundered thoroughly every time, deep soil and stains become imbedded and they lose their attractive freshness. The answer is to wash them, every time, with an all-purpose detergent, plenty of hot water and good laundry blueing.

Fabric safe chlorine bleach in bead form removes deep soil safely and thoroughly.

Another step in laundering terry towels "the modern way" is to restore them to "store-new" softness. New towel softness can be maintained throughout the life of the towels or old harsh ones can be renewed with the simple addition of a capful of fabric softener to the final clear water rinse. Sins, soaps and detergents remove the fabric softener after washing, and the softener acts time you wash. See how harsh stiff towels are made, harsh and soft, perfect for after bath luxury or for making the cuddly bunny, as illustrated.

DIRECTIONS

1. Tightly roll 12 folded new paper pages crosswise. Fasten at both ends with rubber bands.
2. Fold one terry towel (17" x 28") in thirds lengthwise. Roll around one end of paper. Fasten with rubber band.
3. Lay second towel (17" x 28") flat. On it place rolled towel lengthwise about 2" from one end.
4. Draw corners loosely up around the roll. Fasten with rubber band to make bunny's tail.
5. Starting at top center, draw towel down until corner take form of ears. Twist rubber bands around base of ears to hold them in place.
6. Smooth towel overlap a back. Tie bow above thick base (body). Balance ears on top of inner rolled paper.
7. Arrange towel folds to suggest face.

Narleski and Mossi Seem in Top Form

BY MIKE RATHET Associated Press Sports Writer

Injury-plagued Don Mossi and Ray Narleski are reforming the combination that made them the relief pitching duo in the majors.

The former bullpen specialists who made 82 appearances between them for pennant-winning Cleveland in 1954, then continued to toil spectacularly until traded to Detroit in 1958, picked up victories Sunday as the Tigers won a pair of exhibitions.

Mossi, who compiled a 9-8 record with a 3.47 earned run average although slowed by a sore arm in the 1960 campaign, hurled effectively for five innings and combined with Paul Foytack to six-hit Washington 14-1.

Narleski, sidelined for the entire season last year with a ruptured disc in his back, allowed three runs in his first inning before settling down for two stanzas of scoreless relief as the other half of the Tigers' squad edged Philadelphia 10-8.

In other games, St. Louis whipped Pittsburgh 8-0, Kansas City blanked the Chicago White Sox 2-0, Cincinnati outlasted Milwaukee 13-10, Minnesota Twins bombed Los Angeles Dodgers 10-2, Cleveland beat San Francisco 15-9, Baltimore edged New York 7-6 and Chicago's Cubs split, defeating the Los Angeles Angels 10-3 while losing to Boston 6-3.

Charley Maxwell hit two homers and a double in Detroit's 16-hit outburst against the Senators while home runs by Larry Osborne and pinch hitter Bubba Morton in an 18-hit attack gave them their victory over the Phils. Tony Curry drove in five Philadelphia runs with three doubles.

The Cards won it early, lacing Pittsburgh starter Harvey Haddix for five first-inning runs on singles by Julian Javier, Bill White, Ken Boyer, and Stan Musial, a double by Daryl Spencer and two passed balls. Bob Gibson, Ron Kline and Lindy McDaniel blanked the world champions on seven hits—four by Bill Mazeroski.

Rookie Norm Bass started the string of shutout frames against the White Sox, pitching three-hit ball over five innings before Dick Wickersham and Dick Hall finished up. Andy Carey drove in one Kansas City run with a single. Frank Cipriani accounted for the other with a sacrifice fly.

Wally Post's third spring homer was the key shot of a six-run eighth as the Reds piled it on against the Braves after forging ahead with a seven-run second. Homers by Zorro Versalles and Harmon Killebrew triggered the Twins' triumph over the Dodgers in a rain-shortened six-inning contest.

Eight runs in the fourth inning—three on a homer by John Romano and another trio on Willie Kirkland's double—got the job done for the Indians against the Giants. Yogi Berra's throwing error allowed Gus Triandos to score with the clincher for Baltimore as the Yankees lost their eighth in nine games.

Danny Murphy's two-run homer in the ninth inning gave the Cubs their victory over the Angels, but the long ball cost them the Boston game with Jim Pagliaroni and Gary Geiger belting three-run circuit shots for the Red Sox.

20,000 Sign Up

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) - President Kennedy's Peace Corps already has attracted 20,000 persons and stimulated new interest in foreign languages among college students, according to Morris Abram, an Atlanta lawyer.

Abram, a special assistant to R. Sargent Shriver Jr., Peace Corps director, appeared on a television panel program Sunday.

NIGHT MARSHAL

By L. P. Holmes

THE STORY: Frank Scorbie, marshal of Midas Hill, has tried to fire Chris Waddell, the new night marshal, because Chris will not look away when the keepers of deadfalls and dives disregard the law. Chris has refused to be fired.

CHAPTER XIII
"But you gun-whipped Breed Garvey," blurted Scorbie. "Don't you realize what that means?"

"It means," Waddell retorted, "that the next time I walk into his deadfall, that animal will know his place."

"But I warned you special about antagonizing men like him—" Scorbie's angry words ran off into a floundering uncertainty.

"Sure you did," agreed Waddell curtly. "You also let him short-change—rob a miner, and did nothing about it. After that you cringed in front of that buzzard-headed Hogan Geer and his pet thugs, the Spooner brothers. And that fellow, Price Ringgold—he looked at you like he was ready to spit on you. And you took it! But somewhere there was a spark of shame. For you came right back here to this office and set out to lose yourself again in a bottle. You, Frank Scorbie who once walked proud in River Pass and made that town sit up and beg. I can't figure it!"

"Don't try," mumbled Scorbie. Under the lash of Chris Waddell's words, Frank Scorbie had slid down in his chair and was staring at the desk top with lowered eyes.

"I'm asking you to turn back that badge, Chris," Scorbie said presently. The words were still thick, but the tone milder, almost beseeching. "Believe me, it's best all ways. This is no spot for a man like you. I was wrong in over asking you to come here."

"Yet you did," Waddell reminded. "You must have had a reason."

"I thought I did," nodded Scorbie slowly. "Call it a weak moment on my part. Anyway, I was remembering the strength that was in you. I needed some of it. Now I know I had no business asking for it. So—forget Midas Hill, Chris. Forget me."

"No!" said Waddell. He took a short turn up and down the office, then came around on Scorbie, full of bleak censure. "Frank—get up off your hands and knees! You don't have to crawl in front of the kind of scum that runs Ute Street."

Scorbie brooded for a moment. Then he slowly pulled erect in his chair and his glance lifted to meet and hold Chris Waddell's intent regard.

"All right," he said, his tone

NIT Remains Unpredictable; Buckeyes Win

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The National Invitation Tournament, as unpredictable as ever, swings back into the basketball spotlight Tuesday night while Ohio State, still sighing with obvious relief, preps for a weekend showdown in defense of its National Collegiate (NCAA) championships.

Dayton plays Temple and Niagara meets flashy Providence in a doubleheader at New York's Madison Square Garden that will decide which pair joins St. Louis and Holy Cross in Thursday's NIT semifinals. Dayton (19-7) and Niagara (16-4) are the last of the original field of 12 teams in action in the 24th New York tournament and each has a score to settle after the way the other two seeded clubs—Colorado State and Memphis State—were treated in their openers.

Memphis State, considered a strong championship threat, was pummeled by streaking Holy Cross 81-69, and St. Louis spilled Colorado State 59-53.

The six NIT survivors and Ohio State, Cincinnati, St. Joseph's (Pa.) and Utah—the four regional champions in the NCAA scrambling—are all that's left as another collegiate season, clouded for the second time in a decade by an ominous fix scandal, moves toward its climax next Saturday.

The NIT plays its final on Saturday afternoon with the NCAA championship Saturday night in Kansas City, where unbeaten Ohio State plays St. Joseph's and Cincinnati meets Utah in semifinal tests Friday night.

The two small college tournaments ended last Saturday, with Whittenberg (Ohio) beating Southeast Missouri 42-38 for the NCAA title, and Grambling (La.) whipping Georgetown (Ky.) 95-73 in the NAIA final.

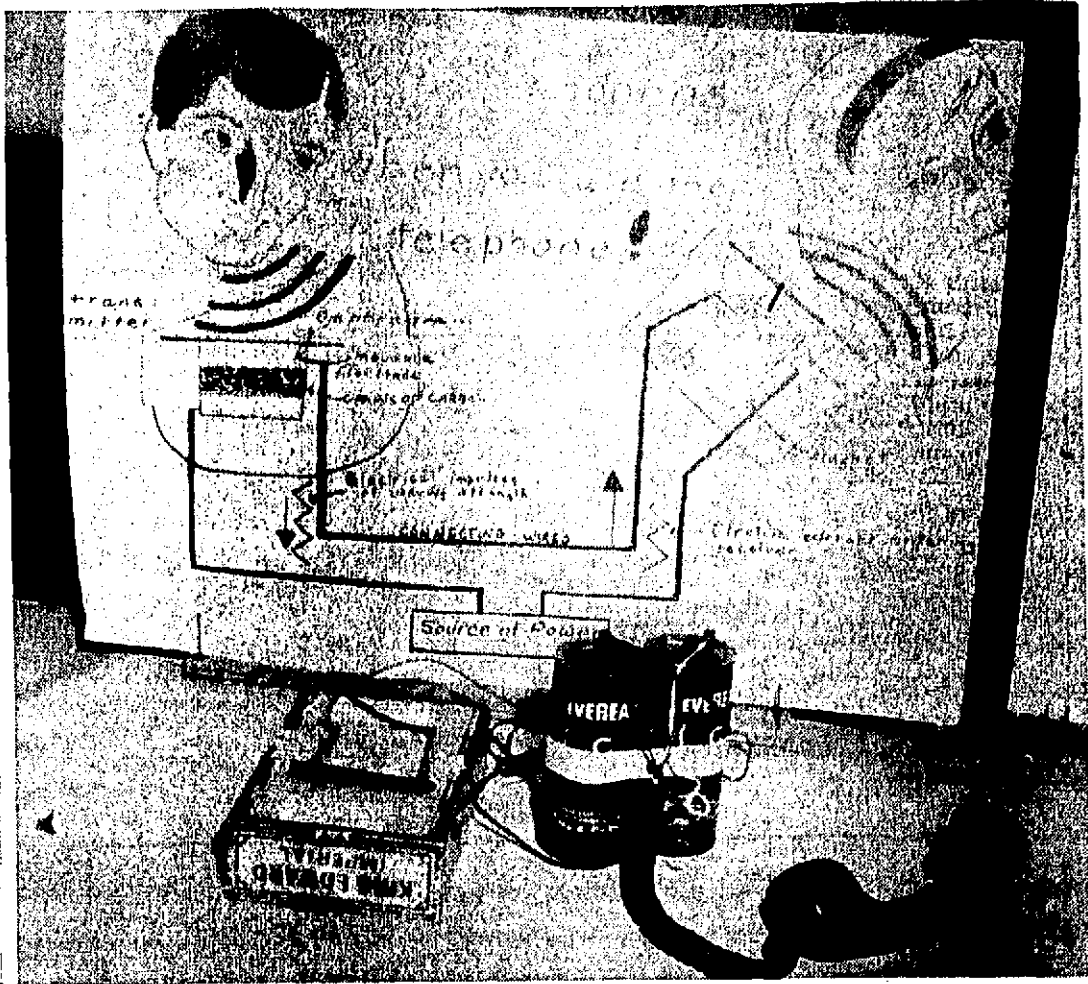

Ohio State extended its two-season winning streak to 31 and its 1960-61 record to 26-0 over the weekend, thumping Kentucky 87-74 in the Midwest regional final at Louisville Saturday night after escaping with a 56-55 victory over the University of Louisville 24 hours before. All-America Jerry Lucas, held to a career low of nine points by Louisville, stormed back with 33 points and 30 rebounds in the Kentucky romp.

In St. Joseph's, the Buckeyes meet a club on a 15-game streak after spilling Princeton 72-67 and then Wake Forest 96-86 in the Eastern regional at Charlotte.

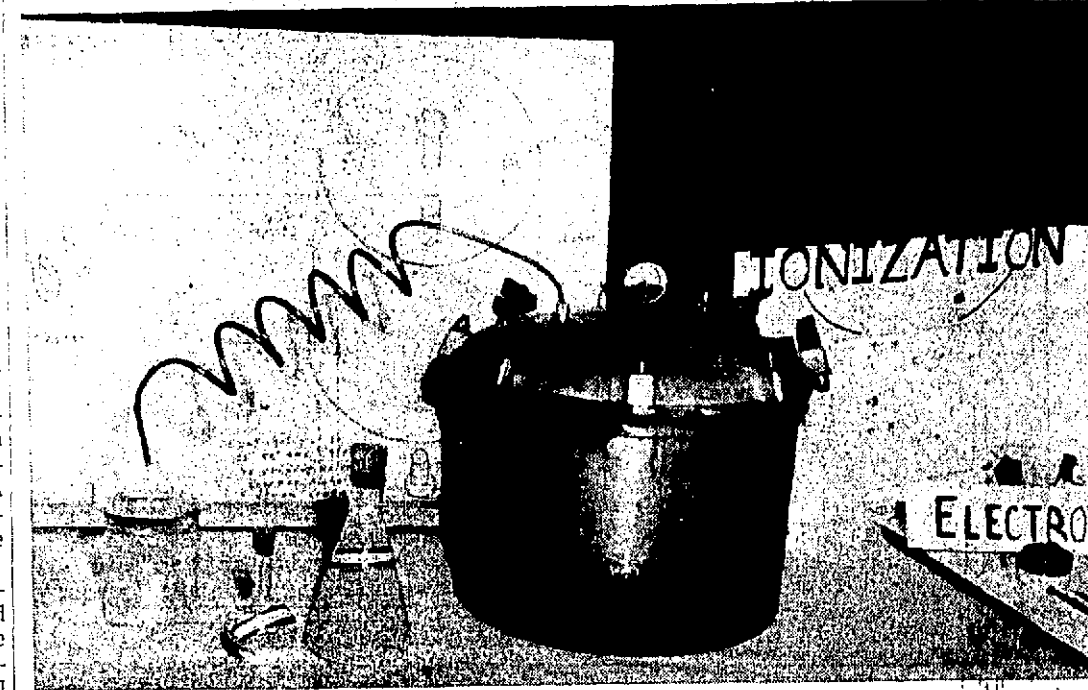

An Ohio State victory likely would set up a meeting of the nation's No. 1 and No. 2 teams, since second-ranked Cincinnati will be favored over Utah's Skyline Conference kings in the other semifinal.

Cincinnati pushed its winning streak to 20 and its over-all record to 25-3 by beating Texas Tech 78-55 and Kansas State 69-64 in the Midwest regional at Lawrence, Kan.

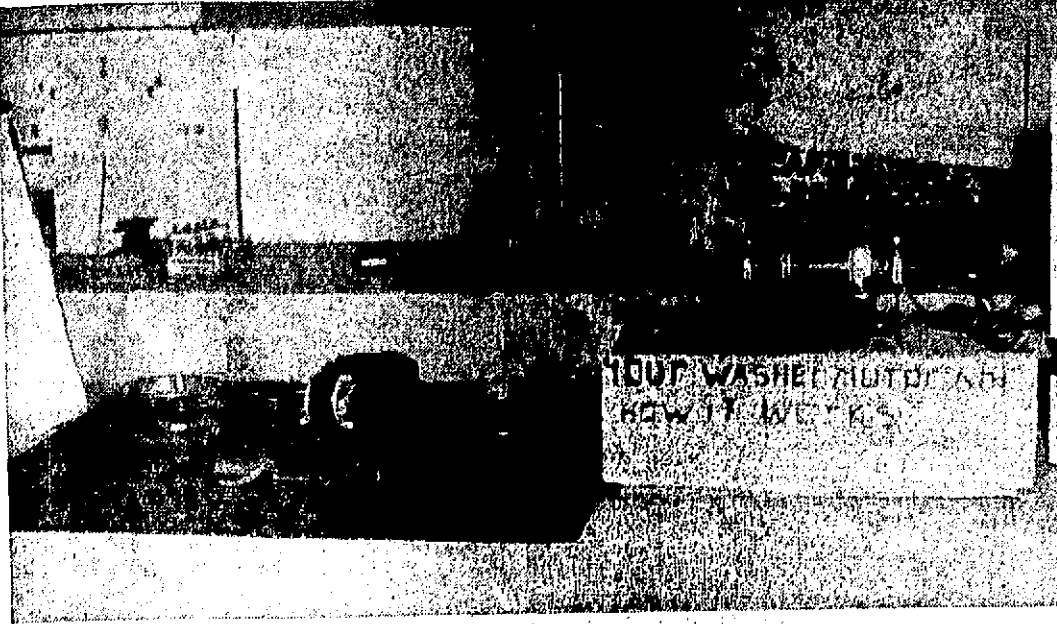

Utah, which won the Skyline NCAA berth in a playoff with Colorado State, got 60 points from 6-9 Billy McGill in nailing the Far

Not Amusement

MUENSTER, Germany (AP)—A Muenster court ruled Thursday that a fashion show—no matter how pretty the girls or how pleasant the accompanying music—doesn't qualify as amusement. The court upheld a textile firm that appealed a city amusement tax levied on its annual style show.

Broyles Hits Two Platoon in Football

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles criticized the former two-platoon football system as killing the sport and praised present rules as "giving us balance we've never enjoyed."

Broyles lectured here Saturday at a coaching clinic.

He said the wild card rule allows a coach to use specialists when needed but also forces the teaching of a football variety. "There's no value to a game when you take a boy and let him do only what he does best, never learning any more," Broyles remarked.

Broyles denied that college ball competes with professional football.

"Why do you think college football drew over 20 million last year? Why does it keep gaining? It's the closeness, the even balance, and this is what we want," Broyles told Birmingham News Sports Editor Benny Marshall in an interview.

Adults Only Warning

PARIS (AP)—The French state television network, which occasionally spices its programs with sex and undraped actresses, today adopted a special signal to warn when youngsters should look the other way.

A little white square will bob up in the lower right corner of the screen, remaining there throughout the "adults only" program in case anyone tunes in after the announcer has given the usual verbal warning.

Longer Duck Season Asked by Group

STUTTGART, Ark. (AP)—The Arkansas Wildlife Federation concluded its weekend meeting here Sunday, calling for a longer duck season, institution of a doe season, and electing Dayle Wiley of Stuttgart president of the group.

The duck and doe resolutions were among several passed by the AWF, which met with Nelson Cox, director of the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission and other G&F staff members.

Wiley replaces W.M. (Bill) Apple of Little Rock, who is vice president of the National Wildlife Federation.

Other officers elected Sunday: Ralph Gilliam of Dardanelle, first vice president; John Moore of Clarendon, second vice president; Leavelle Smith Jr. of Stuttgart, secretary; treasurer; Rayford Farris of Biscoe as national delegate.

The duck resolution called for a season of 50 days instead of 40 and a full first day of shooting. The sportsmen asked the doe season to restore balance to the state's deer herd. Doe now outnumber bucks, 15-1.

The federation passed a resolution voicing opposition to two projected dams on the Buffalo River,

Cage Scandal Probe to Be Continued

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Another parade of witnesses in the current college basketball scandal was scheduled to go before the district attorney's investigators today as the probe continued to widen.

"We will be questioning several players and others from various colleges under investigation," said a spokesman for the district attorney's office.

So far two Seton Hall players and one from the University of Connecticut have been accused of accepting bribes to hold down the point totals of two specific games.

The district attorney said Henry Gunter and Arthur Hicks, both 21, of Seton Hall, were paid $1,000 each for shaving their team's points in a game against Dayton in Madison Square Garden on Feb. 9.

The University of Connecticut player, so far unidentified, was paid $1,500 to hold down the score of his team in a game against Colgate, in Hamilton, N.Y., March 1, the district attorney said.

Two accused fixers have been arrested. They are Aaron Wagman, 23, of New York, and Joseph Hacken, 41, also of New York. Both have previous gambling convictions.

Two assistant district attorneys—Alfred J. Scotti, head of the racketeers bureau, and Peter Andrioli—head the investigation and apparently they want to give protection to the players questioned.

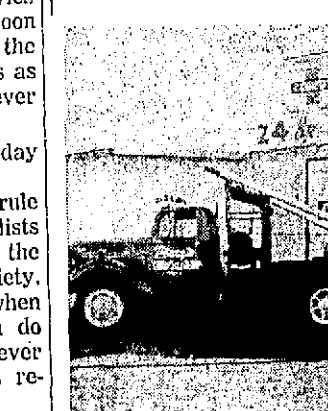

They refused even to say where they would quiz today's witnesses.

This seems to be the wish of District Attorney Frank Hogan, who also handled the investigation in the 1951 scandal that involved 33 players from some of the top teams in the country.

Hogan, insiders say, felt he could have gotten more convictions in the 1951 case if there hadn't been so much publicity given to the players.

The first lighthouse in the English colonies in America is believed to have been one constructed on Little Brewster Island in Boston Harbor.
